Special Guest

Joe Green

International Business Development Vegas Chamber of Commerce

Joe Green has been a resident of Las Vegas for almost two decades and has witnessed the city's community flourish and become increasingly diverse. Throughout this period, he has leveraged his 30 years of expertise in business strategy, sales, and marketing. He has led digital sales teams in Las Vegas and opened markets throughout the West Coast for AT&T to do the same during the infancy of digital advertising. Joe has been instrumental in promoting emerging industries and fostering a diverse local business community by facilitating connections between businesspeople and business opportunities since his work began with the Vegas Chamber in 2018. He plays a crucial role in expanding the Chamber's influence and increasing its global significance. Joe has built a network of resources that spans from the local to the international level and collaborates with the World Affairs Council and the Nevada Consular Corp. Additionally, he is an active member of the SCORE community, offering his clients valuable support in areas such as business strategy, marketing, sales, and best practices
