Public Transit:

Douglas College, New Westminster Campus, is within walking distance of New Westminster SkyTrain Station, which is served by the Expo Line. The SkyTrain provides quick and efficient transportation to various parts of Metro Vancouver, including downtown Vancouver, Burnaby, Surrey, and other areas. Multiple bus routes also serve the campus area, providing additional transportation options for commuters.

Driving & Parking:

For those who prefer to drive, the New Westminster Campus offers parking facilities for students, faculty, and visitors. There are designated parking lots available on campus, and parking permits are required to park in these lots. Students and staff can purchase parking permits from the college's parking services office. It's important to note that parking spaces can be limited, especially during peak hours, so it is advisable to arrive early to secure a parking spot.

Accessibility:

Douglas College is committed to providing accessibility and accommodations for individuals with disabilities. The New Westminster Campus is equipped with various accessibility features to ensure that everyone can navigate the campus comfortably. These features include accessible parking spaces, ramps, elevators, and accessible washrooms throughout the campus. The college also provides support services for students with disabilities, such as note-taking assistance, sign language interpreting, and alternative format materials.
